Topic: “Japanese-German Partnership and common Challenges: Sovereign Debt – The European Experience”

Public debt was a crucial aspect of the crisis in the euro area, and it remains a key issue that needs to be addressed from various angles. There are several countries that need to reduce the levels of their public debt, including Japan. At the same time, regulators are discussing the matter of how they should treat government bonds. The situation in Germany looks relatively benign, with debt levels below the average for the euro area. Nevertheless, in the longer term, unfavorable demographics pose a significant challenge to German public finances.

In his speech, Andreas Dombret will address the current state of play in the euro area and the ongoing discussion of the regulatory treatment of public debt. He will also discuss what Germany can do to address the demographic challenge it is facing in order to maintain sound public finances and how Japan may benefit from the European experiences.

Speaker: Dr. Andreas Dombret, Member of the Executive Board, Deutsche Bundesbank

Dr. Andreas Dombret has been a member of the Executive Board of Deutsche Bundesbank with responsibility for banking and financial supervision as well as risk control since May 2010. He is also the Bundesbank’s Deputy for G7, G20 and IMF and a Member of the Supervisory Board (SSM) and the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS). Dr. Dombret studied business management at the Westfälische Wilhelms University in Münster and was awarded his PhD by the Friedrich-Alexander University in Erlangen-Nuremberg. From 1987 to 1991, he worked at Deutsche Bank’s Head Office in Frankfurt, from 1992 to 2002 at JP Morgan in Frankfurt and London, from 2002 to 2005 as the Co-Head of Rothschild Germany in Frankfurt and London, before serving the Bank of America as Vice Chairman for Europe and Head for Germany, Austria and Switzerland between 2005 and 2009.
